Description

Traditional corner village house in Formentera del Segura recently refurbished and full of charm. It offers two double bedrooms, an additional room ideal as an office, two bathrooms, an independent kitchen with dining area, and a cosy living room with a fireplace.

The property includes a pleasant interior patio, a solarium, and a large storage room with independent access, offering the possibility of converting it into an additional dwelling.

Located right in the centre of the village, with supermarkets, shops, cafés, bars and restaurants just a short walk away. The house also has direct access to the promenade along the Segura River and its green areas — a peaceful, traditional setting to enjoy everyday life.
